Day 2

Abu Simbel Excursion & Kom Ombo Temple

Start your day early with an optional excursion to Abu Simbel, home to the majestic twin temples of Ramses II and Queen Nefertari. These temples were relocated to avoid flooding from the Aswan High Dam and stand as a testament to ancient Egyptian engineering.

After returning to Aswan, your Nile Cruise from Aswan to Luxor continues as you sail towards Kom Ombo, where you'll visit the fascinating Temple of Kom Ombo, dedicated to Sobek and Haroeris. Explore the ancient crocodile mummies and learn about ancient Egyptian medical practices.

Back onboard, enjoy the scenic views as your Nile Cruise sails towards Edfu.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 3

Temple of Horus, Karnak & Luxor Temple Highlights

In the morning, visit the well-preserved Temple of Horus in Edfu, dedicated to the falcon-headed god. This temple is one of Egypt's best-preserved sites and offers a glimpse into ancient religious practices.

Continue your journey to Luxor, where you'll visit the magnificent Karnak Temple, one of the largest religious complexes in the world. Stroll through the Great Hypostyle Hall and explore the fascinating hieroglyphs that have adorned its columns for centuries.

End the day with a visit to the Luxor Temple, an awe-inspiring monument that showcases the grandeur of ancient Egypt.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 4

Explore Luxor's West Bank and Conclude Your Nile Cruise

After breakfast, explore the famous Valley of the Kings, where pharaohs were buried in tombs that are still filled with intricate art and historical artifacts. For an additional fee, visit the tomb of Tutankhamun to see firsthand the legacy of Egypt's boy-king.

Next, visit the stunning Temple of Hatshepsut, dedicated to Egypt's first female pharaoh. End the morning with a view of the towering Colossi of Memnon.

Your Nile Cruise from Aswan to Luxor concludes with a transfer to Luxor Airport for your onward journey.
