Day 2

Tour Cairo and Giza

After breakfast at your hotel, meet your private guide for a full day exploring the treasures of Giza and Cairo. Begin at the Giza Plateau, home to the last surviving Wonder of the Ancient World—the Great Pyramid of Cheops. Discover the Pyramids of Chefred and Mykerinus, stand in awe before the Great Sphinx, and explore the Valley Temple, a key site of ancient Egyptian funerary traditions.

Lunch will be served at a high-quality local restaurant before you continue to the Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM). Set at the foot of the pyramids, this world-class museum is the largest archaeological complex in the world, showcasing over 100,000 artifacts spanning 5,000 years of Egyptian history. View the complete treasures of King Tutankhamun, from his legendary gold mask to exquisite jewelry and royal possessions, along with monumental statues, interactive exhibits, and immersive galleries.

Your day continues in Coptic Cairo, where you will visit the historic Hanging Church and Ben Ezra Synagogue—two landmarks that illustrate the rich spiritual tapestry of the city.

End your day with a stroll through Khan El Khalili Bazaar, Cairo's lively and historic marketplace dating back to 1382. Browse artisan crafts, sample local treats, and soak in the atmosphere before returning to your hotel for the night.

Day 3

Alexandria Day Tour

After breakfast, your guide will meet you for a day trip to the Mediterranean city of Alexandria. Explore the city's highlights, starting with the Bibliotheca Alexandrina, a modern architectural marvel built near the site of the ancient Library of Alexandria, honoring centuries of knowledge and learning.

Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant, then visit the Roman Amphitheatre, one of the most significant Greco-Roman monuments in the city, featuring well-preserved marble terraces and ancient halls.

Continue your tour with Pompey's Pillar, a towering red-granite column erected in 292 AD, and conclude with an exterior visit to the Citadel of Qaitbay, built on the original site of the legendary Lighthouse of Alexandria.

After a full day exploring Alexandria's history and coastal beauty, return to Cairo for an overnight stay at your hotel.
