Abu Simbel Tour from Aswan

About

Journey deep into the Nubian desert to discover the monumental Great Temples of Abu Simbel, one of the most breathtaking architectural achievements of the ancient world. This full-day excursion takes you from Aswan to the edge of Lake Nasser, where the colossal rock-cut statues of Ramesses II and Queen Nefertari stand guard. Guided by a certified local expert tour guide, you will uncover the deep historical significance of these 13th-century BC structures and hear the fascinating modern engineering tale of the massive 1960s UNESCO relocation project that saved them from the rising waters of the Nile. After exploring these ancient wonders, you will immerse yourself in local culture with an authentic Nubian lunch—a delicious, aromatic fusion of North African and Middle Eastern flavors served in a traditional setting.

Day

Guided Tour of Abu Simbel Temples from Aswan with Nubian Lunch

Your day begins with a convenient early morning pickup directly from your hotel reception or Nile cruise dock in Aswan. Travel comfortably through the scenic desert landscape in a modern, private air-conditioned vehicle. Upon arrival at Abu Simbel, your local expert tour guide will lead you through the grand complex, starting with the Great Temple of Ramesses II, famous for its four towering seated figures, and continuing to the elegant Temple of Hathor, dedicated to Queen Nefertari. You will have ample time to marvel at the intricate interior reliefs, battle carvings, and the sanctuary chambers. Following your temple exploration, you will be escorted to a local Nubian restaurant to savor a traditional lunch. Indulge in authentic regional specialties, including slowly simmered Tagines cooked in classic conical clay pots alongside freshly baked breads and rich, spiced meats. After a memorable day of history and cultural dining, your private vehicle and driver will smoothly transport you back to Aswan for an afternoon drop-off at your original pickup point.
