? Day By Day Itinerary

Day

Your exclusive sightseeing adventure begins with a convenient pickup from your Cairo or Giza accommodation in a private, air-conditioned vehicle. Your first stop is the iconic, historic Egyptian Museum located in Tahrir Square. As the world's original repository of pharaonic history, this famous museum houses a rare collection spanning 5,000 years of art, widely considered the largest and most important collection of ancient Egyptian antiquities on earth. Your expert guide will lead you through its storied halls, bringing the treasures of the pharaohs vividly to life.

Next, you will drive to the majestic Salah El-Din Citadel, perched high on a visible spur of the Mokattam Hills in Old Cairo. Inside the fortress walls, you will visit the spectacular Alabaster Mosque of Mohamed Ali, the founder of modern Egypt, and take in panoramic views of the city below. Your journey through Egypt's grand architectural history continues with a visit to the Sultan Hassan Mosque, celebrated as the largest and most imposing monument of the Islamic world, famous for its massive structure and soaring minarets. Right next door, you will walk through the equally stunning Al-Rifa'i Mosque, expanding your knowledge of its incredible design and deep historical importance.

To conclude your day, you will head into the heart of downtown Cairo to experience the lively atmosphere of the legendary Khan El-Khalili Bazaar. Here, you can immerse yourself in local culture and master the art of bargaining for great prices on fine brassware, copper, exotic perfumes, leather goods, silver, gold, and unique antiques. After an unforgettable day of exploration, your private driver will transfer you comfortably back to your hotel.
