Day 1

Unlock the Mysteries of Luxor – Pharaohs, Temples & Timeless Beauty

Your journey into the heart of ancient Egypt begins in Luxor, often called the world's greatest open-air museum. Whether you arrive at Luxor Airport or the train station, your private Egyptologist guide and driver will greet you with a smile and whisk you away in a comfortable air-conditioned vehicle.

Step into the land of legends as we explore the West Bank of Luxor, home to the Valley of the Kings — the final resting place of Egypt's most powerful pharaohs. You'll enter three tombs carved deep into the Theban cliffs, plus the famous Tomb of Tutankhamun, where the boy king's legacy still echoes in golden silence.

Next, we visit the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut, one of Egypt's most remarkable women. This majestic mortuary temple is nestled against towering cliffs and tells the story of a female ruler who defied the odds.

After a delicious lunch at a local Egyptian restaurant, we cross to the East Bank to marvel at the massive pillars of Karnak Temple, a sprawling complex built over 2,000 years in devotion to Amun-Ra. Then on to Luxor Temple, lit up beautifully by the afternoon sun, where the footprints of Amenhotep III and Ramses II remain etched in history.

As the day winds down, we check into your 5-star hotel in Luxor, giving you a chance to rest, reflect, and dream of the wonders still to come.

Day 2

Journey into Sacred Silence – Abydos & Dendera Temples

An early start and a breakfast box from your hotel fuel our expedition north of Luxor to Abydos, one of Egypt's holiest ancient cities. Here, we explore the Temple of Seti I, a masterpiece of symmetry and beauty that still holds vivid colors thousands of years later. Don't miss the legendary Abydos King List, carved into stone — a vital record of ancient rulers that begins with Menes and spans generations of pharaohs.

Nearby lies the mystical Osireion, a subterranean temple shrouded in myth, believed to be the burial place of Osiris' head.

Our journey continues to Dendera, where the grand Temple of Hathor rises above the desert in near-perfect preservation. Marvel at its astronomical ceiling, hidden crypts, and sacred zodiac signs — one of the best-preserved examples of Ptolemaic architecture in all of Egypt.

After lunch, we return to Luxor, where your guide will transfer you to your hotel, the train station, or the airport — your heart now full of history and wonder.
