Day By Day Itinerary

Day

Explore Edfu and Kom Ombo from Luxor to Aswan

our day begins with a morning pickup from your hotel lobby or Nile cruise ship in Luxor by your professional driver and guide. Relax inside your private, air-conditioned vehicle as you drive south to your first stop: the majestic Temple of Edfu, widely considered the most completely preserved cult temple in all of Egypt. Dedicated entirely to the falcon god Horus, this massive sandstone structure dates back to the Ptolemaic period. Your guide will bring the towering pylon walls and grand hypostyle halls to life, pointing out the intricate reliefs that detail the epic mythological battle where Horus avenged the murder of his father, Osiris, by defeating Seth.

After exploring Edfu, your road trip continues through local towns toward Kom Ombo to visit the unique Temple of Kom Ombo. Perched majestically on high ground overlooking a scenic bend in the Nile, this Greco-Roman monument is famous for its rare double design. It features perfectly symmetrical twin entrances, courts, and sanctuaries, each dedicated to a different deity: Sobek, the crocodile god of fertility and creation, and Haroeris, the ancient falcon-headed manifestation of Horus. Following your tour of the dual halls and the nearby Crocodile Museum, you will sit back and relax as your private transfer carries you south to be dropped off seamlessly at your destination, hotel, or Nile cruise ship in Aswan.
