Day

Explore Kom Ombo and Edfu from Aswan

Your day begins with a morning pickup from your hotel lobby or Nile cruise ship in Aswan by your professional driver and guide. Relax inside your private, air-conditioned vehicle as you drive north to your first stop: the unique Temple of Kom Ombo. Perched majestically on high ground overlooking a scenic bend in the Nile, this Greco-Roman monument is famous for its rare double design. It features perfectly symmetrical twin entrances, courts, and sanctuaries, each dedicated to a different deity: Sobek, the crocodile god of fertility and creation, and Haroeris, the ancient falcon-headed manifestation of Horus.

After exploring the dual halls and viewing the nearby Crocodile Museum, your road trip continues through local towns to Edfu. Here, you will step back in time at the majestic Temple of Edfu, widely considered the most completely preserved cult temple in all of Egypt. Dedicated entirely to the falcon god Horus, this massive sandstone structure dates back to the Ptolemaic period. Your guide will bring the towering pylon walls and grand hypostyle halls to life, pointing out the intricate reliefs that detail the epic mythological battle where Horus avenged the murder of his father, Osiris, by defeating Seth. Following a fascinating day of historic discovery, you will sit back and relax as your private transfer carries you back to Aswan, or drops you off seamlessly at your destination or cruise ship in Luxor.
